

2014 BCAPL VA Beach Regional Championship Results

The very best of the best showed up for the 2014 BCAPL VA Beach Regional Championships held at Q-Master Billiards on October 10-12. This event featured five divisions and truly had something for everyone. The BCAPL national office contributed $1,000 to the prize fund and created the event flyers and banners to help make this event a success. Barry Behrman of Q-Master's provided all of the 7ft diamond tables at no cost.

The 9-Ball Shootout featured a full field of 32 players with the top eight finishers and the top female winning cash prizes. Henry Munden had a fabulous tournament reaching the hot seat with wins over Bob Staeck, BCA Master Bill Mason, and Muhamad Salamah. Munden advanced by beating Frank Hannibal in the winner's bracket final in a hill-hill battle. Bob Staeck had an incredible run on the one-loss side winning seven consecutive matches to finish third. Hannibal finished second with notable wins over TJ Starnes and action player Mike Collins. Also, Tiffany Smith and area superstar Jackie Duggan split the top female prize.

Twelve (12) ladies squared off as Barbara Yeager came back to beat both Cheryl Pritchard (3rd) and Deb Daland twice to capture the title. These ladies are the cream of the crop in the VA Beach area. Cheryl beat Barbara 4-1 in early action and Deb sent Cheryl to the one-loss side by also winning 4-1. Barbara hit a high gear by coming out of the one-loss side to beat them both by a combined score of 12-2. Deb was coming off her undefeated win at The Summer of Love Championship but ran into a buzz saw in the finals.

1 st	Barbara Yeager	$300
2 nd	Deb Daland	$180
3 rd	Cheryl Pritchard	$120

Twenty-nine (29) entrants vied for the Men's Open Championship. Jamie Smith finished off a nice weekend with a 5th place finish, cashing in both events entered. Bo Fox gave Jamie his first loss with some brilliant safety play and settled for a 5th-6th finish. Don Tousley showed why he is feared in Tidewater by finishing a strong 4th. John Cagle put Don in the one-loss side and cruised to a 3rd place finish. Andrew Walker represented North Carolina well by finishing 2nd to the eventual champion, Dave Churchya, who was also the MVP of the weekend - beating a lot of higher ranked players to become the overall champion of champions.

The Scotch Doubles division was played on Sunday and tournament organizer, Tiger Baker, had everyone ready to finish off the great event with a bang. Fourteen (14) of the strongest pairs in the Tidewater region squared off for the title. Local league players, Kris Wyle and Jumbi Baker, upset Jamie Smith and Kristin Burns in an incredible hill-hill battle to finish 4th. The final three were the most experienced teams as Arlene David and Bill Mason were beaten on both sides of the bracket by the eventual champions Jackie Duggan and Eric Moore. Duggan and Moore got revenge on Ray-Ray and Melissa Carawan for beating them in the finals of the winners' side by double dipping them in the finals by scores of 3-1 and 3-0.

1 st	Jackie Duggan & Eric Moore	$560
2 nd	Melissa Carawan & Ray Ray	$310
3 rd	Arlene David & Bill Mason	$185
4 th	Kris Wylie & Jumbi Baker	$100
5 th	Kristen Burns & Jamie Smith	$50
6 th	Diane Carey & Dave Churchya	$50
