

BCAPL National Championships Entry Deadline Extended

CueSports International, Henderson, NV (June 26, 2016) – CueSports International (CSI) has extended the online, fax and email entry deadline for the 2017 BCAPL National Championships to Friday, June 30, to align with the hotel reservation deadline. The current number of entrants is greater than this time last year and we experienced a high demand over the weekend. Therefore, we are extending the registration period so that we may accommodate those who were unable to reach us. However, the extension applies only to online, faxed and emailed registrations paid by credit card.

Great Room Rates

The Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino has special group rates and players who book using Group code SRCUE7 by Friday, June 30 won't pay resort fees. For online reservations, visit www.bit.ly/2rWatU4.

Anyone Can Play

You don't have to participate in a BCAPL league to compete in the BCAPL National Championships. Anyone can purchase a CSI Membership for just $25 and compete in singles and scotch doubles divisions (certain restrictions apply). To purchase a CSI Membership, visit www.playcsipool.com/individual-membership.

All BCAPL Players & Teams Welcome

Any BCAPL player or team may compete, regardless of how they finished in their local league, as long as they meet the eligibility requirements for each division. The BCAPL National Championships will feature approximately 40 divisions, 300 Diamond pool tables, 50 exhibitors and 700 mini-tournaments.

Tables Open 24/7

The tables in the main tournament room will be available 24/7, giving players plenty of opportunity to take advantage of the best equipment in the business and get the most out of their trip.

Charity Pro/Am to Benefit Donate Life America
